NOT FOOLISH.

One of the chatterbox assertions of the opposition is that the Republic is wasting money. How foolish that would be. Wantonness in finances is akin to dishonesty. Anything like careless expenditure would be ruin on wings. The statements from the Treasury Department speak for themselves. They tell a story that pleases the conservative investors of the great money market of the world. That should be satisfactory to the taxpayers and it is satisfactory to them. The people who protest are mischievous individuals who don't know what they are talking about. They do know that hoodlums is a thing of the past in Hawaii and probably that's what makes them ache.

Among the reform measures that will be presented to the legislature, an anti-cigarette act will be prominent. In California lately there was a lively crusade against the pernicious "paper cigar."

Just what the second act of the play Thursday night amounted to is not yet clear. The Attorney-General's department is probing for facts. Whatever the inside, it will be uncovered and justice meted out.

Within the past month there have been more merchant men in this port than for years past. The question of a larger harbor is one that is forcing itself. The STAR expects that in a few months expansion will begin.

HAWAII'S foreign office will soon be in earnest correspondence with the Japanese Government. Transactions are now pending between this country, the United States, Portugal and England. Hawaii is in the swim.

NOW the "fernest" press is up on hind legs and howling because Mr. Hatch is making a trip for this Government. They would probably protest in the identical insane way if the States were brought here for the business. Really, there is no pleasing some people.

THE Chinese of Honolulu occupy a peculiar position with relation to the oriental war. In victory for their mother country they see nothing but continuance of the rule of a dynasty opposed to western civilization. In her defeat they see that from the ruins there will arise active spirits of genius and advancement. The son of China is always a philosopher. On this occasion his fatalist proclivities have full play.

SOME of the deepest thinkers in Hawaii are firmly of the opinion that there will be no lasting peace until the cause of liberal government has been consecrated with blood. They say that the tranquil revolution is a myth and cite history to prove it. Perhaps we can make a precedent. Having the benefit of the experience of our ancestors, as well as our own, perhaps we can establish a new rule.

THE movement in real estate is an added symbol of increasing Americanism in Hawaii. Uncle Sam's sons are the greatest town lot dealers in the world. It was a westerner who said of a killing in a new mining camp: "When they begin shooting in Jawbone Gulch it is a sure sign of richness in the bowels of the earth." When really dealing becomes a distinctive and growing feature in the Islands it is a fresh coloring of the tint of the States.

A MEMBER of the Baltimore bar, Mr. Cohn, has just issued from the John Hopkins press an elaborate essay on the prospects of the Republic, in which he expresses the fear that its durability is menaced by the immensity of its territory, the problem of the negroes and the great increase of population in the cities. A writer in the Revue Historique of Paris reviews this paper and comes to different conclusions. He is of opinion that "there is a strong probability of the constitution of the United States remaining substantially the same for an indefinite period to come, a blessing to many unborn generations."

Timely Topics.

December 27, 1894.

On the cross streets intersecting those running down from the slope of Punchbowl are some very pretty residences and well cared for grounds, and the roads are fairly good between streets, good enough to please most any one, but the arrangement of the ditches or gutters is deplorable. They are so far below the level of the road that it makes it dangerous, particularly at night, for people to drive over them. It is well understood that deep gutters are necessary in order to carry off the water which flows down the hill, and the ancient used to construct ditches so that when carriages crossed them a broken spring was the result. It was rumored during that era that the road builder was also a carriage builder hence, the connection. In modern times and in countries adopting modern methods it is customary to run the water in such places under ground and to cover the ditches at cross streets with heavy planks. It is understood that during the next century, sometime, the same plan will be adopted here. There is a certain risk in following new ideas too closely; some people like to have them thoroughly tried.

Christmas is over and the people are settling down to plain every day business and fixing up their want list for the new year. We have as complete a stock in general lines as may be found anywhere in the Islands. To ascertain just what is included in the "general lines" would require your attention for several days, perhaps longer. It would cost a lot of money for us to tell you of them all in this column. We therefore only take two or three items at a time and dilate on them. For instance: Today we take stoves as a starter. You probably never saw a better iron stove in your life than the "Pansy," it's good because it is economical of fuel and is a good baker. Another point in its favor is the fact that it burns wood or coal. One per cent of the purchasers of the "Pansy" have objected to it because there was no hot water back to the stove. We have reduced this one per cent to nil by obtaining water backs from the factory. This is a very slight additional expense and puts a cheap stove on a par with a high priced one in the matter of convenience.

There are some people who won't burn wood or coal on account of the expense; some of them wouldn't use it if they could get it for nothing on account of the bother. We accommodate such people in selling them Dietz Oil Stoves. You would be astonished at the number of these stoves we have sold and the testimonials we have received from parties using them in Honolulu. There's a certain amount of convenience and economy about them not obtained in any other make of stove. The same sort of cooking may be done on a Dietz Oil Stove as can be done on an iron stove and perhaps a little quicker. We haven't a large stock of the Dietz stoves; it's impossible for us to keep them people want them and while we have them we sell them. If you should call today you could get one from us, tomorrow may be too late.

Haviland China is an article in great demand by persons who want their tables to look well. The "2109" we have been selling for a long time, because people admire the carnation pattern. Some ladies object to it because their neighbors have it. To combat this we have lately added another design called the 3486, a beautiful thing and bound to be a grand on account of the delicacy of the pattern. You cannot make a mistake in ordering either of them.

Solid silver ware is just as good a buy after Christmas as before, the price does not change as with regular Christmas goods. Solid ware is worth so much a penny weight at any season of the year. There's economy in solid silver spoons because they never wear out—there's no plating to come off, its just pure silver clear down to the bone. Our stock of these goods is made up of articles for every day use as well as certain combination sets to be used during certain seasons. All our pieces and sets are in George III pattern, (the latest made) and are really very handsome. The price is about as low as it can be made for and is unquestionably cheaper in the end than plated ware.

ODD FELLOWS.

Some of the Homes and Orphanages of the Order—Triple Link Notes.

There are now between 30 and 40 Odd Fellows' homes and orphanages in active operation in this country. These institutions speak volumes for the charity of the order. Philadelphia originated the idea, and it has grown amazingly. New Jersey's home has been in operation ten years and has property worth $25,000. New Hampshire soon followed and eight years ago opened a home for its indigent members. From the start it was a success, and the property of the institution, including the guaranty fund, is valued at $75,000.

There are 35 distinct orders of Odd Fellows in the world.

Pennsylvania has had 73 grand lodges, 19 of whom are now living. Five of the number have been grand sirs.

The office of secretary of Philadelphia lodge, No. 13, has been held by the Sligo family for over 50 years.

Observation shows that a staff of 20 members is more efficient than one two as large.

In Germany when a visitor of note is expected, lodges in a district will join in one body and hold a grand meeting of good will and love.

Nevada, Mo., has offered $7,500 and a site for the Missouri home.

The grand master of Michigan receives a salary of $1,000 and is expected to devote his entire time to the duties of his office.

The S. G. L. is not in favor of recommending the establishment of a college or university for the education of orphans.

An order for $410 was ordered drawn to pay postage on reports of officers and daily proceedings for the week that the S. G. L. was in session.

RED MEN.

The Observance of Historical Events Urged.

Short Talks.

By the resolution adopted by the great council of the United States tribes are urged to join in the appropriate observance of all patriotic anniversaries of historical events in the history of our country, says The Wampum Belt. Teach love of country to the rising generation, loyalty to our common flag, steadfastness to the principles of freedom, friendship and charity and thus justify the claim we make for our order as a truly American institution.

Cincinnati tribes are already making arrangements to entertain the great council of Ohio, which meets next May.

Winnetka council of Lynn, Alfarotta council of Chelsea, Mayetta council of Everett and Wampanoquin council of Malden, all of Massachusetts, are planning for interchange of work in the councils.

The degree of Sachem has a membership of 2,496 in Indiana.

Almost unlimited authority was given to the great inchoance to expend wampum under the approval of the committee on finance for the propagation of the order.

Knights of St. John and Malta.

Major General McKean has announced the appointment of Sir Frank M. Hooper as assistant general, military department.

Four new encampments are being organized in New York.

Sir Charles Hayward of Wilmington is now entitled to the title of grand prior of Delaware.

Sir Arthur F. Lamson of Brooklyn, by his earnestness in militia work, has earned his present title of grand prior of New York.

Chosen Friends.

There are more than 40,000 members of the order.

The order has expended $8,000,000 in death benefits, $500,000 in disability claims and paid $5,000 to two members on reaching their seventy-fifth year and is expending about $1,000,000 annually in relief.

St. Louis councils have a membership of 2,990.

American Legion of Honor.

For the month ending Oct. 31, $149,500 was paid in death benefits and $24,000 in relief benefits.

The November assessment called for payment of $100,500 to beneficiaries of 71 deceased members. Five of these deaths occurred in Massachusetts.

Thirty-one Million Pounds of Gold Each.

An experimental boring 2,200 feet deep was recently made in the Witwatersrand goldfield with a view to testing the lie of the auriferous deposits. The result was the following by Mr. Scott Alexander may be interesting as showing the rich possibilities of the future: Circumference of basin, 400 miles; diameter, 122 miles; area, 15,360 square miles, or 360,719,272,000 square feet. Taking average thickness of eight series of blanket beds at 6 feet (equal to 48 feet), equals 10,854,560,000 cubic feet of gold ore, at 15 cubic feet to the ton, 19,821,455,000 tons. At 20 shillings per ton (very low), value of gold equal to $1,278,196,224,000. Taking the population of Witwatersrand at 40,000 souls, this allows each £32,454,905 12s. 6d.—South Africa.

Why He Went on, The Hackman's Daughter.

Launched on a career, before him loomed the picture of the retired hack driver and his daughter. "I am not afraid," he said, "for I have made myself solid with the good money, I will not." He traveled the whole country, which was so crowded with scenes of hardship and of home sorrow. He had been the price of a career and to the Pacific coast he went. He always carried cash and said into, and yet she was glad of it. This light hearted fellow like minutes and would have been lying still for a voice that called down the hall in tones of the "Oh, the best." "The voice of my father," murmured the girl, again it came to her mind. "The young fellow, we put up at, in a room on this stand." Then Lanyon, not knowing it was so late, went hurriedly away.
